recycled materials. Even the bottoms of the shoes are produced with this kind of sensitivity, that is, with biodegradable rubbers and Cruelty-Free glues.

For example, the shoes from the L-1 line are made primarily of precious microfiber, an extremely light, breathable and soft material. The microfiber is obtained combining recycled polyester fibers with virgin polyester fibers, and the production process is carried out without toxic products and solvents.

The M-1 line, instead, combines natural materials with distinctive materials such as neoprene. Innovative materials such as wood are also used. Obviously it is wood coming from FSC-certified forests.

SQUARE027, created by Marco Zanuccoli, from San Mauro Pascoli, is characterized by key words such as: Change, Transformation, Nature, “Be-essere” (a pun combining the English word “to be” - “essere” in Italian - with the Italian word “essere”. Hence “be-essere”, which is very reminiscent of “benessere” - “well-being” in English - thus expressing both “to be” and “well-being”), Relationship, as well as innovation, research, 100% Made in Italy, Quality, Comfort, Eco-Friendly, Cruelty-Free, Passion.
